If children are compromised with health conditions, please go slow! A bath just going to the waist (instead of covering the whole body) would be more appropriate. The more body exposure to the "clay water", the stronger the process is going to be.

* Below 20 lbs - clay packs may be done.

Research on our clay baths is undergoing for children and needs to be done with caution. Cases of children having serious and/or chronic conditions need to consult your doctor or professional. Even though we have great success with these bath formulas, this clay is powerful and one needs to go slowly with small children and GRADUALLY work up to more clay OR more time in the tub.

If the children have a lot of ALLERGIES, then use the clay ALONE without the herbs and spices mixed into it!
